

Public Awareness

(Adopted 3/25/2014)

The Board of Trustees is committed to keeping the residents of Harborfields Public Library District informed about Library services, programs and issues.

The Director is responsible for overseeing the Library's community relations.

Information about the Library will be disseminated in many different formats, which may include mailings, newsletters, public speaking engagements, internet sites, electronic mail and notices displayed at the Library.